Estate Planning Attorney Referrals

While we are happy to share with you the names of advisors who have been recommended to us, we do not have sufficient information to endorse or approve any particular advisor. We recommend that you request additional information before retaining an advisor including the advisor's experience, qualifications and fee structure. The College of Saint Benedict does not provide legal or financial advice. Often, people find it useful to ask friends and relatives for the names of advisors with whom they have enjoyed working. That may be helpful in finding an appropriate attorney for you.
